

I do not have any problem with being called by my bank or any others for that matter. My Mom taught me to hang up if someone called that I did not want to talk with.